

Gorge Handweavers Guild

Fall 2021 Report

The Gorge Handweavers Guild continues to meet monthly via Zoom. We currently have 29 members.

Several guild members displayed woven work at the Dalles Art Center as part of the 2021 Gorge Artists Open Studio Tour.

Jennifer Moore Presentation

Jennifer Moore provided an on-line program about her Double Rainbow workshop. The program was attended by both members of the GHG and another area guild, the Columbia Fibres Guild.

Study group within the guild is currently working on a double weave project.

Below are samples of weaving by individual guild members:

Redwood National Park table runner in Rep Weave in Arts & Craft Movement design.

Ruth Dye

Sitka National Historic Park Table Runner in Rep Weave. Inspired by the Totem Pole faces and colors

Ruth Dye

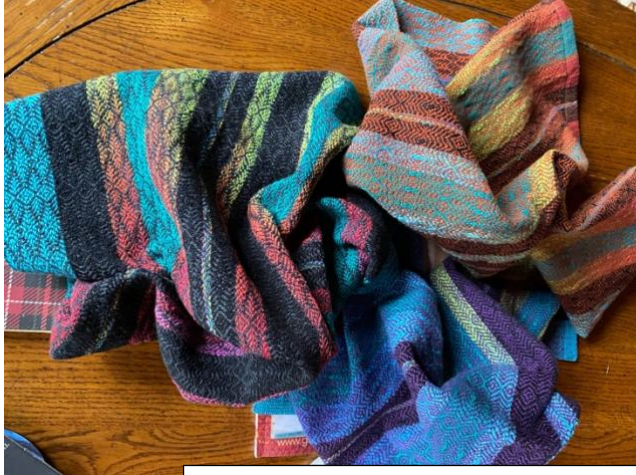

Grand Canyon National Park Table Runner in Rep Weave

Ruth Dye

Susan Binford's Turned Taquete towels in 8/2 cotton based on Yosemite color palette.

Above and right:
Towels woven by Sue Tibbott. Sue used a painted warp separated by solid lines.

Weaving by Ken Bailey. Ken wove these items for the National Park challenge and used the Grand Tetons and White Sands National Parks as his inspiration.

