

Columbia Fibre Guild

WEGO Spring Meeting 2022. Cheryl Richardson Rep

---

We are still holding our monthly meetings by zoom with a presentation.

Several members that feel comfortable are meeting at a local park for spinning each Tuesday and when cold weather came, some homes were offered.

Presentations that were done:

September: Show and Tell of Fair Exhibits

October: Discussion on Guild Challenge due in May- try a new technique

November: Tien Chu Presentation on Painted Warps

December: Members that participated in gift exchange showed item they were gifting.

January: Judith McKenzie

February: Shave 'Em to Save 'Em. HTTPS://livestockconservancy.org. Great presentation

March: Sarah Keller -Knot Another Hat Knit Shop

April: Field Trip- Depending on Covid Status

2 Looms were donated to our local Art Center and Kathy OHern and I are getting them set up.
1st is 2 harness Norwood, other is 4 -H unknown brand

Kristi Peterson is a member that is a perfectionist on all she does. She drop spindles, spins, knits and weaves. Below are items she has recently knitted. She is also a great teacher

