

Gorge Handweavers Guild
Spring 2022 Report

The Gorge Handweavers Guild (GHG) continues to meet monthly via Zoom. We currently have 32 members.

ANWG Grant

We received a $600 ANWG grant! This will be used for Robyn Spady's "A Parallel Threading is the Weaver's Playground". The 3-day workshop is scheduled for October 15-17, 2022.

Discussing our guild booth for the 2023 ANWG conference in Bend.

Guild members have been busy attending a variety of online classes this past winter, including:

- Double Rainbow Workshop with Jennifer Moore
- Deflected Doubleweave with Madelyn Van der Hoogt
- Tapestry weaving with Rebecca Mezoff and Sarah Swett
- Collapse Weave with Jane Stafford
- The Natural Dye Workshop by Maiwa School of Textiles

Photos of GHG members weavings:

By Anna Kramer
Twill napkins – first project woven on Anna's new Louet loom. 8/2 cotton warp sett at 20 epi.

By Susan Binford
Scarf made on the warp from the Jennifer Moore Double Rainbow workshop. It's 8/2 tencel weft on the jewel tones 10/2 perle warp sett at 40 epi.

By Susan Binford
The last of the beautiful warp from Jennifer Moore's Double Rainbow workshop. This is 10/2 perle in the jewel tones. Weft is copper and cranberry.

By Susan Tibbott
Twill towels 8/2 cotton thread, sett at 24 epi.
Same warp, different look with different weft threads.

By Kathy O'Hern

Scarves woven from techniques learned in Linda Hartshorn's class. 8/2 tencel thread sett at 40 epi.

Woven as a guild challenge to weave something using a National Park color palette; these scarves inspired by YNP.