

Columbia Fibres Guild Wego Report. Cheryl Richardson Wego Rep

Our guild has been quite busy as usual.

We now have a website: <https://www.columbiafibresguild.org/>

We are going to have booth at ANWG displaying our fiber boards we made with the ANWG scholarship. Members are knitting dishcloths in conference colors to spell ANWG CFG and will donate them later to an organization.

December: Holiday Luncheon held at Columbia Gorge Hotel with a White Elephant Exchange (fiber related) and 15 door prizes from several organizations around the state.

January: Nancy Skakel, member, demonstrated wet felting

Feb: Presentation on fiber processing tools

March: Cydne Pidgeon from Aurora Colony presented blending fibers

April Field trip: Traveled to Jennifer Marcus tapestry studio, lunch, then to Damascus School of Weaving

Other April Activities: Judges Training Part 1 just completed by teacher Cydne Pidgeon
Hood River Blossom Festival: Spinners and knitters demonstrated

Columbia Gorge Museum in Stevenson is celebrating their Centennial in May so we were asked to spin.

Spinning Warp for upcoming Sheep 2 Shawl we will do at the Skamania Fair

Tuesday group still meet weekly at different locations to spin, knit, or whatever
