

EUGENE WEAVERS GUILD REPORT TO WeGO

October 2025

Current membership 120

During the summer of 2024 Eugene Weavers Guild received a $600 grant. We used that money to do three classes of dyeing: Natural Dyes, Ice Dyeing, and synthetic dyes. The Flowing Colors Project of handwoven pieces is the end result of that project.

EWG's FLOWING COLORS PROJECT was on display at ANWG 2025. Six EWG members won awards at ANWG.

JURIED SHOW

Best Use of Conference Colors 1st place - Cathy Barnes, Stained Glass II

Best Use of Dye or Surface Design + Best Craftsmanship and Design in more than four shafts (2nd Place) - Mina Ossiander, Diamond Runner

Tow the Line Award for Woven Linen - Krista Richey, Peekaboo

FASHION SHOW

Best in Show - Karen Sieradski, Medallion

Best Interpretation of Conference Theme - Tracy Livernois, Striped Tunic

Best Garment Made of Felted Fabric - Beki Ries-Montgomery, Botanically Printed Indigo Vest

County and State Fair:

Several of our guild member's pieces were entered into the Lane County Fair, garnering several awards.

The Oregon State Fair

EWG was excited to have the highest number of entries in the exhibit this year. Now we would like to challenge other guilds to enter pieces next year!

EWG has an active and vibrant collection of 10 different Study Groups.

Our Library has added a WEFT magazine subscription. We held a picnic in park this summer.

EWG holds FIBERAMA every other year, all goods are donated with proceeds going to the Eugene Weavers Guild. EWG's total profit this year was nearly $1700. We also sold PERPETUAL CALENDARS. $248 profit
Many people over several years worked to complete this project.

EXHIBITS

In September, EWG's OPEN SHOW exhibit was held during Fiberama.

The best of our household weavings will be displayed at West Avenue Furniture in November and will be displayed on furniture in their show room floor. This is our second year exhibiting in the furniture store.

Our Holiday Celebration and Sale is in November.

Submitted by Sarah Mostkoff